

Your Vegas, I Wish You Were Somewhere Else

It only hurts you when you close your eyes Please promise me my friend that you'll live to 93 Your heart it burns you like a raging fire and Sometimes in the night there's a light you cannot see Although I know you got a whole inside There's something in your mind sayin 'everythings alright with me' Alright, alright, alright

But this isn't part of the process
This ain't 'A Beautiful Life'
Oh mind of glass
It don't help you when you run away
Don't let it smash
it's the only thing that made you stay

I wish you were somewhere else
I wish you were somewhere else

Oh we all know that silence has no sound
And the world goes round And that you've never needed anybody else
Is it funny money makes us smile When something in your face says you just can't stand your wealth Oh I know honey that you're still not right And it breaks my heart just to watch you destroy yourself Inside, inside, inside

But this isn't part of the process
This ain't 'A Beautiful Life'

I wish you were somewhere else
I wish you were somewhere else
I wish you were somewhere else

Oh mind of glass

(it don't help you when you run
away, it don't help you
when you run away)

Oh mind of glass,
It don't help you
when you run away
