

Youth Asylum, Color Everywhere

Used to seein' black and white never any in between waiting all the love of my life to come into my dreams everything is shades of gray never any blues or greens needed someone else to turn to someone who could help me learn and see all the beauty that was waiting for me

You,you put the blue back in the sky you put the rainbow in my eyes a silver lining in my prayers
and now there's color everywhere you put the red back in the rose just when i needed it the most you came along to show you care and now there's color everywhere, everywhere

My life is so predictable never any mystery but ever since you shined the light all of that is history and now I have a hand to hold and a reason to believe,Yea.
If someone in my life worth living for I was hangin' around just wishing on a star To put the happiness back in my heart

And you,you put the blue back in the sky
and now theres color everywhere

Left those hazy days behind me never to return again now they're just a faded memory ohh...ohh....
Cuz baby it's all so clear to see The beauty that is waiting there for me you put the blue back in the sky

you put the rainbow in my eyes
and now there's color everywhere
you came along to show me you care
and now there's color everywhere
and now there's color everywhere
you came along to show me you care
and now there's color everywhere

and now I have a hand to hold And a reason to believe
