

Youth Group, Someone Else's Dream

You lit the spark, the day dawn dark and your restless body swings in the breeze,
I was laid back, laid flat, laid off and I didn't even want the job,
Anyway its too late now,
You're having someone elses dream,
You're having someone elses dream,
Lets all go to the holy soul to that soulless hole where the restless people go,
To shout, oh you never got out
Dont you hate it when they just say hi?
They dont see the sadness in your eyes
Oh yeah, lets dream it down
You're having someone elses dream
You're having someone elses dream
Oh get me out
Yeah get me out
Yeah get me out
Are you having someone elses dream?
Are you having someone elses dream?
You're having someone elses dream
You're having someone elses, someone elses dream..
