

Youth Of Today, Positive Outlook

Through the clouds i see the light my conscience tells me what's wrong and right morals and goals deep inside a bunch of feelings i can't hide, but that's me
it's the way i live
my outlook on life is positive!
so what should i hide or try to conceal
all of these feelings that i feel like to sit and talk about them i want to stand and shout them!!
