

Yuki Kajiura, Liminality

I'll be there by your side in the land of twilight in your dream I will go till we find the sunrise You are lost in nightmare deep in blue illusion one more kiss to wake you up come be mine, you are mine I will be there seekin' for liminality no destinations to see, I wander in quiet places so dark as eternity I'm crying calling your name I'm searching for you Dreaming in the land of twilight we are in the land of twilight deep in blue eternity search for liminality
