

Yukka, Woman Has No Soul

I fell in love with a woman
She has no soul
The kind that you've got coming
With drugs and rock n roll
A fucking cold kinda fever
Mistaken for the heat
Probably better not to leave her
And not get stuck in any deeper

She's got a body like a tiger
She's got a tongue like a snake
She's got my body to like her
She has put my brains on a stake
I'm in another bloody mess
I knew it from the start
When I put my face on her chest
I didn't hear no heart

I fell in love with a woman

I fell in love with the devil
She has no soul
The kind that you've got coming
With drugs and rock n roll
A fucking cold kinda fever
Mistaken for the heat
Probably better not to leave her
And not get stuck in any deeper

She's got a body like a tiger
She's got a tongue like a snake
She's got my body to like her
She has put my brains on a stake
I'm in another bloody mess
I knew it from the start
When I put my face between her breasts
I didn't hear no heart

There's something I've got to tell
That woman put me straight to hell
There's something I've got to tell
That woman

I fell in love with a woman
