

Yuna, Fool 4 U

You may think that I am spiteful
Writing all these songs about you
I can't resist it
You got me twisted

In lies ain't it nice
You get on with your life
Cliche for me to say this

When you go away

I'm just a fool for you
Longing for a lost love
Asking the whole wide world
Baby yea,
Why can't I have you?
I'm just a fool for you
Longing for a lost love
Baby yea,
Why can't I have you?

You think that I'm poetic enough?
No words that my mind can think of
I'm so conflicted
You're so addictive
(Addicted to my baby, my baby)

Our fights and our nights,
We carry on with our lies
In vain.. Back to the same thing
To our old ways

I'm just a fool for you
Longing for a lost love
Asking the whole wide world
Baby yea,
Why can't I have you?
I'm just a fool for you
Longing for a lost love
Baby yea,
Why can't I have you?

Longing for you... ahh
Longing for you... ahh
