

Yung Bleu, Beautiful (Outro)

I shouldn't think more about you than you think about yourself
You gotta know you beautiful

Baby you're beautiful
I think that you should know
I think that you should know (yeah)
I think that you should know (you should know it)
Baby you're beautiful
I think that you should know
I think that you should know
I think that you should know

You know I like you with no make-up
I'm in a rush, ain't got no time to fix your face up, wrap it in a bun
Keep it natural, don't dress it up, that take away the fun
Sometimes I like it when you lookin' basic Lookin' like yourself and not just lookin' like no fake bitch
Ain't no interruptions, I know you know how to take dick
No ass shots but that ass pretty and soft (that's the way)
That's the way I like to get off, I like it

Baby you're beautiful
I think that you should know
I think that you should know
I think that you should know
Baby you're beautiful
I think that you should know
I think that you should know
I think that you should know
