

Yung Bleu, Hard To Find

Your love ain't, your love ain't hard to find
Tell me you love me, if you don't love me, just tell me now
Way before the money and the cars and clothes
You always been the one that had me exposed
Way before the chain and the videos

And to be honest (And to be honest)
I don't want you sexually, I want everything beyond it

What's that sound? That's your heartbeat
Your love ain't, your love ain't hard to reach
Tell me you care 'cause if you don't care, I can't breathe

Your love ain't, your love so hard to find
And if you down, down then I'll be down, down, and we'll be fine
Way before the money and the cars and clothes
You always been the one that had me exposed
Way before the chain and the videos

And to be honest
I don't want you sexually, I want everything beyond it

Your love ain't, your love ain't hard to find
