

Yung Bleu, The Way You Rock

Nobody really knows you like I know you
So why would you give it away?

You look like sunshine on a Saturday
With a pretty face to match
You makin' me levitate from your heartbreak
But it can't be too bad 'cause I love you

Love the way you rock
And I love it, love the way you rock
I love it, love the way you rock
And I love it, love the way you rock

Nobody really loves you like I love you
And that's why I need you to stay
You givin' me butterflies on a summer night
And it's hard to explain
She a bad lil' vibe, she gang-gang
Heavy thought about gettin' your name changed
Even when it rains

You look like sunshine on a Saturday (On a Saturday)
With a pretty face to match (With a pretty face)
You makin' me levitate from your heartbreak
But it can't be too bad 'cause I love you

Love the way you rock
And I love it, love the way you rock
I love it, love the way you rock
And I love it, love the way you rock

I love the way, the way you rock
Fly you in, take you out
Got a hold of you, you shakin' now
Heart was occupied, it's vacant now
So beautiful, girl, you tryna break me down
You breakin' me down
Girl, I love the way you rock
Love the way, love the way you rock

Love the way you rock
And I love it, love the way you rock
I love it, love the way you rock
And I love it, love the way you rock

You look like sunshine on a Saturday
With a pretty face to match
You makin' me levitate from your heartbreak
But it can't be too bad 'cause I love you
