

Yung Bleu, Those Games

Wanna hangout wit yo gang
When I call you we can't hang
You know I don't play those games
You know I don't play those games
Even let you rock my chain
You know it's love and I ain't the same
You know I don't play those games
You know I don't play those games

Bought a brand new Bentley coupe
You can bring yo friends too
Matter fact leave them hoes at home
I want you all alone
Imma get you alone and go with my move
If you ever cheat, I'm makin the news
She twenty-two and she the truth
She twenty-two and she the truth
I told you that lil pussy got a hold on me
I trusted you so girl you better follow me

Wanna hangout wit yo gang
When I call you we can't hang
You know I don't play those games
You know I don't play those games
Even let you rock my chain
You know it's love and I ain't the same
You know I don't play those games
You know I don't play those games

Girl I know you got my notification
Won't answer calls I'm poppin' up
But I'm no notification
I might be over complacent
Makin' these changes we coppin' out
We're makin' different arrangements
But now I'm makin' you famous
I put you in this song cuz I love ya
I'm just a street nigga, Imma thug ya
I wanna fuck ya, I don't wanna cuddle
I wanna pull up, I don't wanna bug ya
Bitch don't play no game
Bitch just say my name
Bitch just say my name

Wanna hangout wit yo gang
When I call you we can't hang
You know I don't play those games
You know I don't play those games
Even let you rock my chain
You know it's love and I ain't the same
You know I don't play those games
You know I don't play those games

Bought a brand new Bentley coupe
You can bring yo friends too
Matter fact leave them hoes at home
I want you all alone
Imma get you alone and go with my move
If you ever cheat, I'm makin the news
I let her suck me out my shoes
Can't play no games you know the rules
