

Yung Bleu, Till The Death

I love you but I love you not
It's like a love war
But I can't fight it

I love you then I love you not
It's complicated
Put it in, don't pull it out
Let's have a baby
You stuck with me 'til the death (The death)
You cross me then it's to the left (Yeah)

Every time I touch you
Every time I get you in my arms, I always say, "It's no one above you"
Don't nobody love you like I love you
No, can't nobody fuck you like I fuck you
And she said, "Every time I see you
I just wanna hold you in my arms, you know I really wanna please you
So come and let me please you"

I don't fuck with big mouth hoes 'cause that's tacky ('Cause that's tacky)
I'm tryna pull your lace, I'm tryna pull your yaki
Get money and take shifty hoes ain't in your bracket (Ooh)
I don't do bougie hoes, I like my bitches ratchet, yeah
Gave her a hundred letter stashed and I'm a big dawg, yeah
I ain't gon' lie, I fucked that bitch and now you pissed off, man
Overdosed on the dick, that shit be hittin' like Fentanyl, yeah (Yeah)
Slappin' your ass and pullin' out your wig, you installed, baby

Stuck with me 'til the death
I fuck with you like no one else (Yeah)
You stuck with me 'til the death
I fuck with you like no one else

Every time I touch you
Every time I get you in my arms, I always say, "It's no one above you"
Don't nobody love you like I love you
No, can't nobody fuck you like I fuck you
And she said, "Every time I see you
I just wanna hold you in my arms, you know I really wanna please you
So come and let me please you"
