

Yung Bleu, Yea, Save Yourself

Save yourself
Don't stick around, save yourself
Yeah, I'm goin' downtown, so hold your breath
This what you been missin'
You don't know what you just got yourself into
Ain't nobody can save you

I tried to be everything that you prayed for
But instead, I'm everything you tried to stay away from What I'm gon' do when that day come?
When you can't look up in my eyes no more
And them gifts that I get you, you not surprised no more, woah
What I'm gon' do when you not interested?
And my apologies, you don't even contest it, yeah
I've been so busy, I'm hot like an oven
Savin' yourself like you Superwoman, she don't even wanna talk no more

Save yourself
Don't stick around, save yourself
Yeah, I'm goin' downtown, so hold your breath
This what you been missin'
You don't know what you just got yourself into (Yourself into)
Ain't nobody can save you (Ain't nobody can save you)
I can't save you, so save yourself
Save yourself
Don't stick around, save yourself
Yeah, I'm goin' downtown, so hold your breath
'Cause this what you been missin'
And baby, you don't know what you just got yourself into
Ain't nobody can save you

She like, "You bad for me"
Now you tryna take back the love that you had for me
Got you goin' down the wrong way like a crash dummy
Hope you got on your seatbelt (Your seatbelt)
Save yourself 'cause I can't help
Every night, I think about your smile
And all your sacrifices to be up in my life
And it makes me cry
Oh, yeah, hopin' you can save yourself before you run out of time
Hopin' you can save yourself, I know it ain't right, yeah
And maybe I don't have the strength to do what is right
Save, you gotta save yourself (Yourself)
