

Yung Joc, Play Ya Cards

Well I guess safe its safe to say im on my joc
And everything I say seem to come from the heart
And even if ya hate ya gotta play ya part
Or just kick back and chill til I play my cards.

Okay im back, sit back and listen
First album platinum plaques now watch it glisten
The badest broads, the fastest cars,
Im sure a lot of niggas wish this life was yours
What says it aint, yall niggas said I cant
Ya laughed about my dance, I walked it out the bank
Now my lady happy cause we aint gotta starve
Hatas mad at me, cause im on my joc
I congratulate ya somebodys gotta do it
Im not bad, im used to it
And if ya feel the same then youz a friend of mine
Wontcha tell them lames, don't get outta line

Well I guess safe its safe to say im on my joc
And everything I say seem to come from the heart
And even if ya hate ya gotta play ya part
Or just kick back and chill til I play my cards.
Play ya cards, don't get outta line, don't get outta line, don't get outta line
Play ya cards, don't get outta line, don't get outta line, don't get outta line

Call it hustlenomics, hustle by any means
I got a lot of hustle, a whole lot of schemes
Theres not enough fingers for me to count on
My stalks way up, call me dow jones
Ive been around the world, in almost every hood
I walk anywhere, this card is very good

And they don't play round, down in H town
Ill take ya to the bottom, im talking dade county
I take ya out west, in them lo lo's
Scared to rep ya set, that's a no no
I take ya back to the A town,
Hey now, play around, or ill make them boys make ya lay it down

Well I guess safe its safe to say im on my joc
And everything I say seem to come from the heart
And even if ya hate ya gotta play ya part
Or just kick back and chill til I play my cards.
Play ya cards, don't get outta line, don't get outta line, don't get outta line
Play ya cards, don't get outta line, don't get outta line, don't get outta line

I need a bottom bitch, one who pays attention
Respect the grind, respect my intuition
Don't get outta line, just look and listen
And soon youll find, im what you've been missin
And the bottom line is im on the clock
24/7 the hustle don't stop
Oh ya im from the A, that's my stompin ground
And if ya on ya joc we stand on common ground

Well I guess safe its safe to say im on my joc
And everything I say seem to come from the heart
And even if ya hate ya gotta play ya part
Or just kick back and chill til I play my cards.
Play ya cards, don't get outta line, don't get outta line, don't get outta line
Play ya cards, don't get outta line, don't get outta line, don't get outta line
