

Yung Pinch, ALRIGHT

I, I told her everything's gonna be fine
Yeah, I told her everything's gonna be fine
Yeah, everything's gonna be, everything's gonna be fine

Might of fucked up but I fix it every time
Call it tough love, you can call it what you like
Shawty still pissed, she been trippin' all night
I told her everything's gonna be fine

Ima just repeat it, you know that's my favorite line
I know that I cheated, I ain't even gonna lie
Got a reason to be mad, and it's all alright
I told her everything's gonna be fine

You don't gotta worry bout chicks
When you got it like this
Ya I'm talking that shit girl
Started off liking my pics
Tryna ride on my dick
Now you swiping my fits girl
Ima need all my hoodies back
If you wanna play like that
I could meet you where you at now
Tell me how does that sound
You know I hate it when you act out
Don't make me put the mac down

Problems evolved, after it all, yeah
Your friends were involved, I know it's my fault, yeah
What can I say, I want what I want
Yeah, everything's gonna be, everything's gonna be fine

Might of fucked up but I fix it every time
Call it tough love, you can call it what you like
Shawty still pissed, she been trippin' all night
I told her everything's gonna be fine

Ima just repeat it, you know that's my favorite line
I know that I cheated, I ain't even gonna lie
Got a reason to be mad, and it's all alright
I told her everything's gonna be fine

You don't gotta worry 'bout me
I'm standing on two feet
Same streets in my home town
You can put the blame on me
But I'm still gon' be

Problems evolved, after it all, yeah
Your friends were involved, you know it's your fault

Might of fucked up but I fix it every time
Call it tough love, you can call it what you like
Shawty still pissed, she been trippin' all night
I told her everything's gonna be fine

Ima just repeat it, you know that's my favorite line
I know that I cheated, I ain't even gonna lie
Got a reason to be mad, and it's all alright
I told her everything's gonna be fine
