

Yuppi Flu, Retirement Speech

if i could tell you/ wriggles are here for nuclear retirement do i know /where we go dioxide
i suppose

i always had a person/ a person i had to talk to impassive to all the elements
so active and cozy too

Into a time creek cricket pitch had me
I see retirement
do i know where we go
i suppose

but do i forget to mention the adaptor linkin me to you R&D is goin' too far and flutter is the only way i know all the germs are breathin' you you stand still/ and they will do open the vent/ the isotope is just fine made us stand in line
