

Yuriko, Bad Timing

Bad timing
Pictures clutter this room
I have these spaces
Waiting to fill, waiting for you
This isn't what was sold to me
My dreams in glossy rectangles
This isn't what was suppose to be
But i know, yeah i know
I still have marks you gave me
One to remember one to forget
Tapered red lines won't streak
So i'll wait till hell freezes
One to remember, one to forget
Which one are you
I know you better
Do you still wrestle in your sleep now
I can count these bruises
I know you better
I know this isn't the place to be
No its not the place to be
