

Yuriko, Short Of Tranquil Sleep

waking up on short breaths again i promise your good enough this time the words will come this time if you just give it a chance it will come this time
if you just give it a chance
i promise five long years without sleep for this one nights rest everything will be ok it will be ok, i promise we'll meet again, i promise
