Zac Brown Band, Where The Boat Leaves From

There's a place, where the boat leaves from It takes away all your big problems You got worries you can drop them in the blue ocean But you gotta get away to where the boat leaves from Take one part sand, and one part sea, one part shade of a big palm tree The drinks they're cold and the ladies are hot And I know this is the place for me So get away to where the boat leaves from It takes away all of your big problems You got worries you can drop them in the blue ocean But you gotta get away to where the boat leaves from See the problem is that you're down there And there's a perfectly good island somewhere Where a ride that floats and don't grab your coats You won't need them where we are going So get away to where the boat leaves from It takes away all of your big problems You got worries you can drop them in the blue ocean But you gotta get away to where the boat leaves from Pick me up Out on a boat that is huge Pick me up I don't know how to do Pick me up Put me down Down on the sand where its cool Put me down When I fall off my stool Put me down I'll just sleep there til morning comes around With sunshine and ladies and pina colodas and Bob Marley songs that are playing There's a sound in my ear that I want you to hear Soft tropical lips that are saying Get away to where the boat leaves from It takes away all of your big problems You got worries you can drop them in the blue ocean But you gotta get away to where the boat leaves from
