<lyrics>

Oh Don't fly away my crane
Don't fly away my crane
Oh mercy mercy mercy
Don't fly against the wind
Oh why were you born yellow star
Blue star blue star ... come back

Your feathers are in threads
Your feathers are in threads
Oh mercy mercy mercy
Don't shed them in foreign lands
Oh why were you born yellow star
Blue star blue star ... come back

You destroy homes, break backs
Misleading star come back back ...

Oh I have falcons and hawks
I have falcons and hawks
Oh mercy mercy mercy
I have springs and summers
Oh why were you born yellow star
Blue star blue star ... come back

For my beloved I have a few words
For my beloved I have a few words
Oh mercy mercy mercy
I can't talk to foreigners
Oh why were you born yellow star
Blue star blue star ... come back

You destroy homes, break backs
Misleading star come back back ...

You destroy homes, break backs
Misleading star come back back ...
