<lyrics>

My pain disguises a secret
In the court of the intellect
The pain of your absence
Is like a flame in my spirit

To burn and blaze is so good
To wilt and fade is so good
To be full of longing is so good
For this love's sake
For immortality's sake
To live and die is so good

To burn and blaze is so good
To wilt and fade is so good
To be full of longing is so good
For this love's sake

For immortality's sake
To live and die is so good

The wind blows and blows
The leaf flies, a branch stays
The fire of eternity
Burns and consumes

To burn and blaze is so good
To wilt and fade is so good
To be full of longing is so good
For this love's sake
For immortality's sake
To live and die is so good

To burn and blaze is so good
To wilt and fade is so good
To be full of longing is so good
For this love's sake
For immortality's sake
To live and die is so good

To burn and blaze is so good
To wilt and fade is so good
To be full of longing is so good
For this love's sake
For immortality's sake
To live and die is so good
