Have the wild olives flowered
Have the branches sagged
Have the wild olives flowered
Have the branches sagged
It was at noon that I waited
He promised but didn't come
It was at noon that I waited
He promised but didn't come

She toddles along to the spring
Girl, don't let me catch you looking
She toddles along to the spring
Girl, don't let me catch you looking

Like the wild olive's flowers
My love for him grows
Like the wild olive's flowers
My love for him grows
If I could lay in his arms
And never again get up
If I could lay in his arms
And never again get up

She toddles along to the spring
Girl, don't let me catch you looking
She toddles along to the spring
Girl, don't let me catch you looking

She toddles along to the spring
Girl, don't let me catch you looking
She toddles along to the spring
Girl, don't let me catch you looking
