Zebrahead, Anthem

I got a girlfriend Only she don't know it yet I got a six string best friend Who sleeps with a broken neck I want to make my mark change the world, with this flow But, all this doubt in my head It won't let me go

Can't you see I want to lock my door and shut out all the world surrounding me Safe from the problems and the pressures caused by insecurities

Get up! Get up! Let the good times roll! Get up! Get up! Take my heart and my soul! Get up! Get up! Let the good times roll On and on and on..

Feel like everybody else just needs to see through different eyes From the outside looking in we shout the anthem of our lives Come on and let me go and just like everybody else I feel the pain each time I try But I'll fight the bitter end to shout the anthem the anthem of our lives I got a heartache She's my insecurity I got all these on my tongue but they escape me I want to breakout, Carpe Diem,

I know, but all this doubt in my head It won't let me go

Can't you see I want to find my own direction on this busy one-way street Where all the influential people never bother helping me

Get up Get up! Let the good times roll Get up Get up! Take my heart and my soul! Get up! Get up! Let the good times roll One and on and on..

Come on and let me go and just like everybody else I feel the pain each time I try But I'll fight the bitter end to shout the anthem the anthem of our lives This is the Anthem Out to all the misfits If you feel you don't belong If you don't give a shit About authority About majority About conformity Shout it out Let us go! [x7] Everybody else just needs to see through different eyes From the outside looking in we shout the anthem of our lives Just like everybody else

Feel like everybody else just needs to see through different eyes

From the outside looking in we shout the anthem of our lives

I feel the pain each time I try

But I'll fight the bitter end

to shout the anthem

the anthem of our lives

Feel like everybody else just needs to see through different eyes

From the outside looking in

We shout the anthem of our lives

Just like everybody else

I feel the pain each time I try

to shout the anthem

the anthem of our lives
