

Zebrahead, Lightning Rod

So you say you like the way I look

So you say you like the way I look

When I fall and no one's there to catch me

So you say you like the way I move

So you say you like the way I move

Into every storm I see above me

'Cause everybody's doing what they like

And what they like is not enough for me

I do not feel the same

Here we go 'cause

Tell me why we always sweat it

Everybody wants more but they never get it

Tell me why we always sweat it

Everybody wants more

(everybody wants everybody)

Tell me why we always sweat it

Everybody wants more but they never get it

Tell me why we always sweat it

Everybody wants more

(and everybody wants more)

What you want is never what you get

Here comes the wall, better lower your head

What you want is never what you get

You're going to fast

So you say you like the way I move

So you say you like the way I move

Into every storm I see above me

Breaker breaker one two

Break out to break through

You can swim slash drift where the tides take you

It's about your attitude
Extension of your latitude
Rejection of gratitude
What up, whatcha thinking dude?
Who said every day's gonna be fun?
Keep an eye on the web
Other people have spun
Who said every day's gonna be fun?
Best recognize or betcha you'll come undone

'Cause everybody's doing what they like
And what they like is not enough for me
I do not feel the same
Here we go 'cause

Tell me why we always sweat it
Everybody wants more but they never get it
Tell me why we always sweat it
Everybody wants more
(everybody wants everybody)
Tell me why we always sweat it
Everybody wants more but they never get it
Tell me why we always sweat it
Everybody wants more
(and everybody wants more)

What you want is never what you get
Here comes the wall, better lower your head
What you want is never what you get
You're going to fast

Grit your teeth, this is gonna be a bumpy ride
Loud and clear
Hi-fi, lo-fi
Hand fist, shape shifts to electrify

Sure enough showing up trying to climb sky high

Tell me why we always sweat it

Everybody wants more but they never get it

Tell me why we always sweat it

Everybody wants more

(everybody wants everybody)

Tell me why we always sweat it

Everybody wants more but they never get it

Tell me why we always sweat it

Everybody wants more

(and everybody wants more)

Tell me why we always sweat it

Everybody wants more but they never get it

Tell me why we always sweat it

Everybody wants more

(everybody wants everybody)

Tell me why we always sweat it

Everybody wants more but they never get it

Tell me why we always sweat it

Everybody wants more

(everybody wants more)

What you want is never what you get

Everybody wants more

What you want is never what you get
