

Zebrahead, Rescue Me

Another tragedy in the news

Someone shooting down the right to choose

It doesn't seem at all that they chose the right way

Another law I heard got passed today

Someone's trying to take my rights away

It doesn't seem to me they chose the right way

It's out of my hands but stuck in my mind in time

I find my spine is crooked in design I want to be so much more (I wanna be so much)

Rescue me

Take this hand, by myself, alone I stand

Rescue me

From this world, from myself, before I grow old

Someone rescue me

Does anybody ever feel this way?

Does anybody have the guts to say?

It doesn't seem at all they chose the right way (yo man you're going the wrong way)

Who am I to say I disagree?

Who am I not to change a thing?

Because I don't believe they chose the right way (hey man you're going the wrong way)

[Repeat Chorus]

Here it comes again

Excuse too weak to stand on

I'm falling off

Too weak to stand on

I'm falling off

Too weak to hang on

Falling for you to catch me (catch me) [x2]

I'm afraid

That no one is changing

who's to blame?

Someone SAVE ME!!

[Repeat Chorus]
