

Zebrahead, Timing Is Everything

If I didn't know better, I would swear you don't care

Throw yourself around, hold me down

I can see through you

You're so fucking bull-headed, tormented, I don't get it

Thrown your weight around, hold me down

I can see right through you

Timing here is everything and everything means everything

I can see right through you

Timing here is everything and everything means everything

I can see right through you

Timing here is everything and everything means everything

I can see right

Think I'm gonna be sick

You take anything to get through

You always got something to prove

And you want it all

What you got ain't enough

What you got ain't enough

What you got ain't enough

Come on come on, alright alright

If I didn't know better, I would swear you don't care

Throw yourself around, hold me down

I can see through you

You're so fucking bull-headed, tormented, I don't get it

Thrown your weight around, hold me down

I can see right through you

Timing here is everything and everything means everything

I can see right through you

Timing here is everything and everything means everything

I can see right through you

Timing here is everything and everything means everything

I can see right

Think I'm gonna be sick

You take anything to get through

You always got something to prove

And you want it all

What you got ain't enough

What you got ain't enough

What you got ain't enough

Come on come on, alright alright

I think I'm gonna be sick

You take anything to get through
