

Zebrahead, Wake Me Up

I want a wrecking ball

I want to break it all

I want to jump the track

Fade the day to black

It's in the elements

In the elements

Is what they meant

And the world is bent

Give me something to believe in

A drop of hope to raise our fists up high

Blood fills our lungs from screaming

We won't live a lie

won't live a lie

This life is but a dream!

[Chorus:]

So wake me up

Cause I must be dreaming

I can't believe what my eyes are seeing

Yeah wake me up

I can't find a meaning

Nothing really matters when the world is sinking

Down, down. down

When it all falls

Down, down, down

Who will you blame?

I want to be what I'm not

I want to care a lot

I want to stop your fall

I want to take it all

It's never Heaven sent

Never heaven sent
And what they meant
never made a dent
Give me something to believe in
A drop of hope to raise our fists up high
Blood fills our lungs from screaming
We won't live a lie
won't live a lie
This life is but a dream.

[Chorus]

Trust is breached
We're misunderstood
We try to find our way
But we're falling down
Nothing to hold on to
No one there to catch you
And I could never lie to you

I said we're fucking falling down
Nothing to hold to
No one there to catch you
And I know you'd never lie Give us something to believe in This life is not a dream!

[Chorus]
