

Zed, Calling again

When I wake up
Find it so hard to breathe
Time to take up
Because now I'm not even me
Fighting heaven fighting hard
But you're not listening to me
Strike a zero
Unknown wants that I can't see
You're my hero
Why don't I believe in me?
And I hear your voice;
You're calling me again
But there's no answer form me
And I hear your voice;
You're calling again
Face the window
Time to set you free
Hear the wind blow
Making mockery of me
And I hear your voice;
You're calling me again
But there's no answer form me
And I hear your voice;
You're calling again
