

Zed, I'm cold

I've been waiting for years now, or so it seems
I've been waiting for word to come down on what's up
I've been rolling over trying to get some sleep
But the night is cold and someone's taken my bed
And I'm cold
More than you'll ever know
Yeah I'm cold
Or so I'm told
I've been waiting for someone to ease my pain
I've been waiting for someone you can't see
I've been rolling over for years now, or so it seems
But I ain't got a handle on who's upstairs
And I'm cold
More than you'll ever know
Yeah I'm cold
Or so I'm told
