

Zed, Starlight (Hot Chicks soundtrack)

It's alright
It's ok
I'll keep holding on today
'Cause I'm waiting for the starlight in your eyes
No more faith
No more hope
All that I can do is grope
For a shred of loving care from my girl
The pain you felt has burdened you
You can't feel love
I'm glad that I have been with you
But that's not enough
In your arms I would be
Overjoyed as any boy
Holding on to what he loves
Oh so much
Feel your touch every night
When I dreamed to be alright
There you are in front of me
With your smile
The pain you felt has burdened you
You can't feel love
I'm glad that I have been with you
But that's not enough
Whoa, that's not enough ...
The pain you felt has burdened you
You can't feel love
I'm glad that I have been with you
But that's not enough
In your arms I would be
Overjoyed as any boy
Holding on to what he loves
Oh so much
Holding on to what he loves
Oh so much
Holding on to what he loves
Oh so much
