

Zeno, Circles Of Dawn

I used to be so blind - just like a stone
Under the waves of the sea
An unbelieving mind - was sleeping alone
'Till you come down to me
You took me by hand
Speaking the words of my heart
You led me to a land beyond our world

When heavens open wide
And all the angels cry
I look into your eyes
And I see the light
And the angels sing of love

I look into your eyes - circles of dawn
Tear me from dark into light
And when I start to cry - you sing a song
Calming my sighs

(And when you sing a song -
I sing along
Angels are singing of love)
