

Zeno, Far Away

Walking out on the shore
Casting stones at deep blue gazing eyes
Circles open the door
Loving faces start to rise

Sometimes I feel I'm drifting far away
And I can hear a song from far away
A song that will be living on and on
And you're the one I'll sing it to

Sahara sand in my eyes
Longing for some rain to wash them clear
The sun won't give me no smile
If my love won't bum the fear

And if it's only a dream
I don't wanna be a seer of your kind
If it's reality
You just keep on dreaming blind

Sometimes I feel I'm drifting far away
And I can hear a song from far away
A song that will be living on and on
Some day I'm gonna sing it all along
