

Zeno, Love Will Live

Love will be living forever
Love makes you feel that He's strong
There is nothing on earth as mighty as love
Love will be living on

Climb up a mountain together
Sooner or later you'll win
'Cause the bad always creeps
While the love goes upright
Love's never giving in

Love will live
On and on
It may shine over you and all those to come
Love will be living on

Loving is more than a feeling
Love makes you sure He's around
It's the father of truth and the father of hope
Love is the way to be found

I lay my soul into Your hands
I know you treat it right
My love, my truth, my constant hope
May shine within your light
