Zeraphine, I'm Numb

Whatever I am feeling, I find you everywhere You're like the clouds that pass me by again My memories are empty, they'll never bring you back I can't deny how much I'm missing you

Time pours down, Washing my faith away

I'm numb until we're dancing into the night, But I still feel your kisses riding over my skin I'm numb until you're disappearing again Too many scars and a dream will never end

I've been to all the places where you used to be But everywhere a chill kept seizing me And if I sleep, I'm restless and I'm not gone for long I can't deny how much I'm missing you
