

Zero Procent, Hold Your Breath

What are you looking at
Your sight means nothing to me
You're just a little rat
You alone - that's what I want to see
I have no respect for you
For the things that you've done
You betrayed everyone you fool
You had a lot of friends now you have none
It was because of your foolishness
Now you've got what you deserved
Just look how much you've lost
And think: was it worth it ?

Chorus

Now we hate you
Was it on purpose? Or maybe stupid choice?
Now we curse you
Do you like it? When you feel like a piece of shit?
You 'feel sorry'
Please don't make ma laugh, I really doubt
Hold your breath!
