

Zero Procent, Phoenix

So much happiness we had
But life for me was too bad
Later I noticed all of those lies
Which made me sad but I think it's enough!

Chorus

Like phoenix reborning of ashes
I'm rising up and trying to live
Cause I've forgotten you and your lies
And tears went away and will never back

II

Too many times pain was leaving me
And finally it left me and now I believe
That those days and moments won't back again
And I will never feel that pain
