

Zero Tolerance, Listen Very Carefully

The answers we don't know
Are the questions we don't ask
So why is it then
That we are all wearing masks

(Chorus):
So listen very carefully
I walking towards your door
So listen very carefully
We've finally found what we're looking for

The places that we roam
Are the places we know best
Because our trepidation
Pins us to the past

Chorus

There are many obstacles
Between you and me
This is how it should be
Two souls flying free

Chorus
