Zero Tolerance, Listen Very Carefully

The answers we don't know Are the questions we don't ask So why is it then That we are all wearing masks

(Chorus):

So listen very carefully I walking towards your door So listen very carefully We've finally found what we're looking for

The places that we roam
Are the places we know best
Because our trepidation
Pins us to the past

Chorus

There are many obstacles Between you and me This is how it should be Two souls flying free

Chorus
