

Zeromancer, Houses of Cards

How can you stand there and deny it after all we have been through
How can you stand there and deny it and make a fool out of you Collapsing like houses of cards
and landing on splinters and glass Wish I could fake it like you do wish i could fake it just like you
How can you stand there and deny it
How can you stand there and deny it
Trust me now
Collapsing like houses of cards
and landing on splinters and glass
They crush your heart but spare your feet like judging people you've yet to meet
well time is running fast upon your reflection
trust me now
How can you stand there Stand and deny it
