

Zhan, Don't

Don't walk too close Don't breathe so soft Don't talk so sweet Don't sing Don't lay oh so near Please, don't let me fall in love with you again
Please let me forget all those sweet smiles
all of the passion
all of the peace, the heat, the pain all those blue skies where your words were my freedom
Please, don't let me fall in love with you again
Too many times
I've cared too much I stood on the edge and saw that you held my hand and knowing too well I couldn't hide from those eyes
Please, don't let me fall in love with you again
