

Zhan, Sending Your Love

Sending My Love
If I could mail my heart
Right to you, I would
I'd pack it up, seal it tight
And I'd send it over night
Every time I hear your voice
And I look into your eyes
Sends a burning sweet sensation
Oh, inside of me
The look in your eyes
Has found me
I am sending
Sending my love to you
Praying that you are home
Sealing it with a kiss
Sending my love
Sending my love to you
Praying that you are home
Sealing it with a kiss
Sending my love
With my heart in your hands
I'm as helpless as a baby
I'm in desperate need of your love
So just send it right away
I've been thinking about you, boy
Because you're so far away
Makes me want to send you all this love
Inside of me
The look in your eyes
Has found me
I am sending
Sending my love to you
Praying that you are home
Sealing it with a kiss Oh, ho
Sending my love
Sending my love to you
Praying that you are home
Sealing it with a kiss With a kiss
Sending my love
If I could mail my heart
Right to you, I would
I'd pack it up, seal it tight
