

Zhorn, Man Of 1000 Words

Do you still fight the ones who show their hate-full pride?
And keep the master plan to turn the constant tide?
I've left the brotherhood and still I'm on my way
I feel the bitter loss but our goal's a different prey

And I am proud of what I do
There's no way back, it's something new

Man of thousand words is what I used to be Rare and unknown birds still bring their tales to me
Man of thousand words' afraid to speak out loud
Even it still hurts; I'm not within the crowd

To live a compromise was never on my mind
A tower built on lies can just protect the blind
Don't know how brave dudes sleep
And man! I still don't care!
Infinite space is deep, in love and war all's fair

And I am proud of what I do
There's no way back, it's something new

It is hard to surrender, but I'm a man of a thousand words
I won't beg for charity, but it's better to dig that dirt
It is not just a simple deal with a man of a thousand words
The truth of this melody is the gift of my secret birds

It's easy to end up
But I'm a man of a thousand words
