

Zhorn, Of Swords And Kisses

Come on down to the highest adventures
Follow me to the treasures in time
Take my hand, I will show you the secrets
Set them free, where hero and princess are real

Take that sword, take my love as your amour
Take that shield, now the quest is on you
Make your way, as you see there's no limit
You are free, there's no one to bring you back

Far away to the towers and castles
On your way to Eastern Ard
Dream again of broadsword and kisses
Play again the Givers part

Life is short, there's no time to worry
Darksome light illuminate me
Sail your ships to infinite oceans
Gold and steel, how noble your journey will be

Find me in your strangest dreams
It's more and more illogical
You'll meet us all
It's Mr. Spock and honey-bee
And all the guys at MTV
As you might see
Well, you may see!
