

Zididada, Rock My Boat

Release date: 1. November 1999

Album: Welcome to Zididada

Rock'a rock'a boat now

I see so many people on my way everyday and everynight led astray and all them empty faces now on my way I wonder will they ever stop will they stay

And I wanna know if it's alright Yeah I wanna know if it's alright

Won't you please rock my boat now
it needs to be rockin'
yes its alright it's alright
it needs to be rockin'

I ain't ever goin' down this old road
I'd rather sit here rocking my own little boat so take a break and hear me out for today we all gonna jump into my boat and sail away

And I wanna know...

Won't you please rock...

You may laugh of what you see but there is nothing wrong with me I like to sit here all day long just rocking my boat and sing my song

Won't you please rock my boat now...
