

Zion, Roll The Rock

Tryin' to find the meaning of life
Don't know where to look
Well, we don't need "TM" or biofeedback
Just open the Book
He will roll the stone away from your mind
And away from your heart
He will give you His light with power and might
And that's just a start
People seeking a new direction
What they need is a resurrection
Just as His Son who laid dead in the grave
God: "I rolled the rock away"
The latest rage because I rock is to call me a fake
It might be the money or maybe the fame or who can I take
Well, I'm not a scholar but I read in the Book
That it's a dangerous thing
To call the work of God to be of the devil
Makes the warning bell ring!
There's no question who I play for Cause I roll for the mightiest rock!
If you've got a question about my profession
My Boss is ready to talk!
Roll the Rock
Roll the Rock
Roll the Rock Away!
