

Zita Swoon, Circumstances

Hey yo brother
you know Im a true man
Hey yo brother dont ask why
Today the train it rolled out of the station
Why o why

A man says boy Im gonna put you down
A man says boy Im gonna take you out
I never imagined the world like this before
I never spoke to anybody that rude before

Circumstances

Doctor came around to see me yesterday
Spitting all over my sunday suit
I never imagined the world like this before
I never spoke to any sucker that rude

Circumstances

Take a look around!
