

Zita Swoon, Love Is A Heavy Brick

I was left for dead
In spite of the time I spend today
On my own for real
In spite of the charms I saved up
On my way
I went walkin'
Two more streets
I took a left turn
I went the other way
I divided a field of weeds
I made a right side
I made a left side
I put a price on the time I spent today
And I don't see why
Inside the
Eyes of Josie
But she knows
I do suppose

I took a day outta days
I usually spend
In the sides I make
I went a little crazy
But little Josie got carried away
And every now and then
I look at all this I say and do
And all the sides I make
And how they drive me crazy
But I know I won't go crazy so soon
And I hope Josie knows
But man I think I really need to know
If she knows
