

Zita Swoon, Moondog

I call me Moondog
Cause when the lights are low
I let the moonlight
Shine down upon my soul
And all that's gone wrong
Is told to wait 'till dawn
Don't need no burden
I gotta lay down
Low - ease my worried mind, man
Can't worry all the time, man
Put off my crazy goals
And let the moonlight flow
I met a woman
One with a higher score
She said: "now, Moondog
I gotta get some more
Cause just your moonlight
Ain't what I'm looking for"
I says now woman
You gotta lay down
Low - ease your worried mind, girl
Put off my crazy goals
And let the moonlight flow
