

Zoe, Another man

You say I'd go, I say I don't
You say I'd lie, I say I won't
And I see it in your eyes, that this dirty cannot lie
I might talk, You say I'm blank
I'm ready calm, I won't pretend
And I know what you want, yes I feel it all inside
You need me as a man
Someone who doesn't talk
And only understands
You just need me as a man
If only I could be
What you are for me
But I only understand now
U just need a man somehow
Yes you need me as a friend
Because you need me as a man
You say I'm bad, I say I know
I have no eyes for what you show and I cannot sold it out, what you want me to do
I might talk, You say I'm blank
I'm really calm, I won't pretend
And I know what you want, yes I feel it all inside
And what about sex
upon the moon
What about every little thing (I mean) a man can't give?
