

Zoe Girl, Anything Is Possible

I know that you've been thinking
I see it in your eyes
You're holding on to something
But still you don't know why
So walk by faith and not by what you see
Trust your heart and let yourself believe

[CHORUS]

I can do things, things you never knew
Change your world, make it all brand new
I can do miracles if you want me to Anything is possible for you
Anything, anything, anything, anything is possible

[Repeat]

I know your heart's been broken
You feel so all alone
But I will never leave you lonely
I'll never let you go
So walk by faith and not by what you see
It's up to you to let your heart believe

[Chorus]

If I can make the Heavens
If I can make it rain
If I can make your heart beat
Then I can ease your pain
If I'm the only answer, the only one that's right
Why are you still searching?
Why do you still fight?

[Chorus]
